Monday 14th October 2019

Dear Parents

As part of our topic, we are learning about monarchy. On Wednesday 6th November we will be watching The Kid Who Would Be King, at the Odeon cinema in town. This is part of a nationwide film festival so the screening is free!

The film will start at 10:00 so we will leave school as close to 09:00 as possible. We will watch the film in the morning and return to school for lunch.

We will be walking to and from town (even if it rains!) Please ensure your child also has a waterproof coat, water bottle and snack for the trip.

Please return permission slips by Monday 21st October 2019.

Best Wishes

Miss Crook & Mrs Cook
