These were the words Neville Chamberlain, who was UK Prime Minister at the time, spoke when announcing the war:

“I am speaking to you from the cabinet room at 10 Downing Street. This morning the British ambassador in Berlin handed the German government a final note stating that unless we heard from them by 11 o'clock that they were prepared at once to withdraw their troops from Poland, a state of war would exist between us. I have to tell you now that no such undertaking has been received, and that consequently this country is at war with Germany.”

World War II Story Starters...

On a cold, dark night in September everyone was asleep. Suddenly the air raid siren started wailing as the German air force launched a massive bomb two streets away...

Sally and Timothy were told to pack a suitcase by their parents. "You are going to the countryside until this bombing is over," said their father. Standing at the train station with hundreds of other children all waiting for the train...

You can change the names if you want to or even write it as though it were you!
