“Laugh out loud funny.”

“A brilliant, hilarious and heart-warming adventure.”

“An adventure packed with heart, humour and a whole lot of kumquats.”

Jenny Pearson is a former teacher and award-winning author who grew up in Salisbury but now lives in the Northeast of England with two energetic boys and her somewhat energetic husband. She's the author of several middle grade novels and has been shortlisted for the Costa Children's Book Award, the Waterstones Children's Book Prize, and was winner of the Lollies (Laugh Out Loud Book Awards). Her event will include a Super Miraculous Quiz, a look at some amazing oldies, the best dog in the world (according to Jenny), and a sock-based world record attempt. Come along and find out where she gets her ideas from and be inspired to write some stories of your own!
